THANKSGIVING FESTIVITIES ARE ARRANGED BY THE WOMEN'S CLUBS

programmes of women's clubs

also will have a dance on that evening, which begins their campaign to raise

The dinner and dance of the Criterion ociety, Mrs. Leonard M. Hill, president, ill be held at the Hotel Commodore,

The Secretary and Assistant Secretary of the Navy, the commandants of the Naval Academy and the Brooklyn Navy Yard, the commanding officers of all naval vessels lying in New York Harbor and many other prominent navy men, active and retired, will be guests of honor on Briday night at the navy ball to be given at the Hotel Plaza under the auspices of the Texas Club. The United States Navy Band and the band from the battleship Maryland will furnish the music for the evening. Tickets for the ball may be obtained from Mrs. Bernhardt Wall, 1947 Broadway, president of the Texas Club; Mrs. C. C. Mc-Lendon, 309 West Ninety-third street, chairman of the ball, or at the Plaza.

Beethoven Society, Mme. Aida Tanini-Tagilavia, president, will have a card party on Friday afternoon at the Hotel Plaza. Tickets for it may be obtained from the president, 59 West Seventy-fourth street, or the chairman, Miss Ella Louise Henderson, 70 West 120th street. Mrs. Ellis J. Hofford and Mrs. Charles E. Tuxill are the vice-chairmen. Among the patronesses are Mmes. J. S. Carvalho, W. Otis Fredenburg, Ernest H. Heppe. Carl Jungen, E. J. Moneuse, Henry Nassoit, Grace A. Smith, Nadina Sosdorf, Guy P. Trulock, Dudley Van Holland, G. Alfred Walter, D. D. Williams and Mme. Tagilavia.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of directors of the society was held on Friday at the home of the president. Afterward Mme. Tagilavia entertained the members at tea.

On Tuesday afternoon the board will be entertained by Mrs. Dudley Van Holland and Miss Ella Louise Henderson at the latter's home. The society aiready is making plans for a Christmas dance at the Hotel Plaza.

day, December 3, for the benefit of the Little Mothers Aid Association.

Mrs. C. Albert Small will have a com-mittee of girls at her flower booth during the afternoon and evening, and Mrs. William Deering and Mrs. H. W. McDewell will have girls drassed in Swedish costume at the cake table. Mrs. Henry B. Liovy has gelected Demark Swedish costume at the cake table. Mrs. Henry B. Lloyd has selected Denmark and members of Auxiliary No. 1 will appear in Danish costume. The chairman of the Brooklyn Auxiliary, Mrs. William H. Lask, and Mrs. J. Henry Roese have chosen Switzerland. The William H. Lask, and Mrs. J. Henry Roese have chosen Switzerland. The Camille Birnbohm, will have Hungarian gypsies to read palms. Mrs. J. Stuart Smith will preside over the doll booth and Mrs. John K. Green over Holland.

Miss Idello Patterson, soprano, will sing at the luncheon to be given by the bazaar workers at the Hotel McAlpin on Monday, November 28. Mr. John H. Judge, chalrman of the advisory board.

Dance to Be Given on Eve of Holiday by Marquette Club.

Will entertain the guests of the Actors
Fund Home, West New Brighton, Staten Island, on Tuesday, November 22. A turkey dinner will be served at Hotel Langwell, after which the party will attend the afternoon performance at the Hippodrome as guests of the Management. This party will include many of the Theatre Assembly members, Daniel Frohman, F. F. Mackay and the executive committee of the Actors Fund of America.

this week. While the day itself will be void of any formal entertaining, it being essentially a family day, given over to little informal gatherings and dinner parties, there will be much going on both before and after the holiday.

A Thanksgiving eve dance will be given by the Marquette Club and the American Criterion Society will have a dinner and dance on Friday with menu and decorations appropriate to the national feast day. The Texas Club also will have a dance on that evening, which begins their campaign to raise hostesses and reception committee of the club at the Hotel Le Marquis, when which begins their campaign to raise $10,000 for a dormitory in the Navy Club; the Christian Brothers' Boys a dance the same evening and Beethoven Society a card party that afternoon.

On Tuesday the Theatre Assembly
will entertain the guests of the Actors'
Fund Home at an old fashioned turkey the club at the Hotel Le Marquis, when plans for a series of bridge parties to be given for the benefit of the fund for shut-ins were discussed. The card parties will be given on the afternoons of December 12, January 16 and February 20. After the meeting tea was served.

The dinner and dance of the Criterion Society, Mrs. Leonard M. Hill, president, will be held at the Hotel Commodore, Harvest home decorations will be used and the mean will be of the old fashioned New England variety. Four hundred reservations for dinner have been made by the club members and their friends, Later for the dance 200 young persons will come in. A midnight supper will be served. "Spotlight" dancing will be one of the features of the evening.

The Junior Committee this year is headed by Miss Marion Campion and Miss Marjorie Cushman as joint chairmen, Miss Lenna Powers and Miss Ida Braun are the vice-chairmen. The following young women are acting with them: Misses Charlotte Osgood, Barbara Lucius, Charlotte Pattison, Mary Ressinger, Gertrude Collins, Isabella Fox Rosa Robles, Alice Braun, Ellen P. Laffin, Mona Fox, Katherine A. Lovell, Emily Parker, Marcella Verran, Katherine Pott, Blanche Whiting, Gertrude Coreighton, Frances Parker, E. Lucie Behnker, Hazel Crockett and Helen Holbrook.

The diamond jubilee crusade of the Christian Brothers' Boys to erect and equip Manhattan College, Spuyten Duy-vill Parkway, New York city, will end with a ball at the Waldorf-Astoria on Friday evening. Mr. Thomas J. McEntegart is chairman of the evening are Dr. Raymond P. Sullivan, Dr. M. C. O'Brien, the Rev. John Cotter Brosnan, Messrs. George J. Cotter Brosnan, Messrs. George J. Cotter William S. Sterns, William H. Fodd, John F. Brennan, P. J. Castles, Thomas F. Smith, Thomas F. Farrell, Denis O'L. Cohalan, Richard R. Costello, Thomas J. McEntegart, George J. Corbett, James E. Dougherty, Lawrence L. Cassidy, William J. Dougherty, Lawrence Coreighton, Frances Parker, E. Lucie Behnker, Hazel Crockett and Helen Holbrook.

Sorosis, Mrs. John Lewis Childs, The diamond jubilee crusade of the Sorosis, Mrs. John Lewis Childs, president, will have a regular business, meeting to-day at the Waldorf-Astoria, followed by luncheon. The State chairman of art, Miss Anna Maxwell Jones, will conduct a conference on the bill board menace. Representatives of the various art and civic associations interested in the movement have been invited to this conference.

Daughters of Ohlo, Mrs. Edmund W.

Daughters of Ohlo, Mrs. Edmund W. Kingsland, president, will celebrate their twentieth anniversary with a luncheon to-morrow at the Waldorf-Astoria. The luncheon will be preceded by a reception under the chairmanship of Mrs. Joseph R. Megrue.

There will be an unusually fine programme under the direction of Mrs. Rac D. Henkle, chairman of entertainment Mrs. Margaret Holmes Bates gave a reception for the members on Thursday afternoon at her home, 15 Central Park West, to meet Miss Charlotte Hoff.

The annual bridge and euchre of the Ursuline Provincial Auxiliary, Miss Teresa S. Moriarty, president, will be held on Saturday afternoon at the Waldorf-Astoria. The proceeds will be used toward helping to defray the expense of the necessary improvements of the Northern Province.

The Indiana Club, Mr. Will D. Howe, The Indiana Club, Mr. Will D. Howe,

In honor of Annie Mathews, Registerelect of New York county, a luncheon will be given on Saturday at the Hotel McAlpin by the Women's City Club, of which Miss Mathews is a member. The speakers will be Dr. Katharine Bement Davis, who will take for her subject.
"How a Woman in Office Serves the City," and Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, whose topic will be "A Message to Women in Office." Miss Mary Garrett Hay will preside.

Courcy Rossi-Diehl will sing a group of songs with the composer, Remo Taverno, at the plazo.

The next club matines will be "A Bill of Divorcement," the discussion of which will be led by Mrs. S. S. Dunham.
One hundred members of the Kansas
Women's Club, Mrs. David Burr Luckey president, gave a bridge last Tuesday at the Hotel Majestic to aid the $10,000 endowment fund for a Kansas dormirett Hay will preside.

East Forty-first street.

Young Women Who Acted as Waitresses in the Tea Room at the Horse Show to Aid Charity

the fund for the endowed bed in Roose-velt Hospital which the club will donate. MISS OLIVIA STERNER AND MISS DIANA DALZIEL

> THE restaurant in the Colonial house at the western end of the Squad-THE restaurant in the Colonial house at the western end of the Squadron A Armory during the Horse Show, which closed last night, was the centre of much of the social life of the show, particularly during the tea hour, when, under the supervision of Miss Beth Evans, maitresse d'hotel, young women, including some of this winter's debutantes; served the public with fresh brewed refreshments. The accompanying photograph is of a group of the waitresses, who are, above left to right, Miss Mary Wister Morris, Miss Cecile Saria, Miss Virginia Fox, Mrs. Francis Higginson Cabot, Jr., and Miss Felicia Fox, and below, left to right, Miss Olivia Sterner and Miss Diana Dalziel.

The Indiana Club, Mr. Will D. Howe, president, will hold its regular meeting to-morrow afternoon at the Hotel Mc-Alpin. Miss Mary Garrett Hay, the vice-president, will be chairman of the afternoon. "Social Service" will be the subject of the day, the Rev. John G. Benson and Prof. John A. Wood being the speakers. Mrs. Claude Everett Morris will sing several groups of songs, with Mrs. E. R. Hunt at the plano.

The annual dinner of the club will be given on December 12 at the Hotel Mc-Alpin.

Drama Comedy, Edyth Totten, president, will hold its next cabinet meeting of the Century Theatre Club, Mrs. H. H. Thomas, president, held in the Hotel Commodore, Mrs. James W. Howie gaye a lecture of the day a brief summary of "Dulcy" by Mrs. Levin Rank, and a lively discussion of the play by Mrs. Duncan MacPherson, Mrs. George Fowler, Mrs. J. Dean, Mrs. A. D. W. Hogg, Mrs. J. Harrie Hogan and several men guests. On next Tuesday the president will entertain at luncheon in honor of the board of directors, officers and chairmen of the club at the Women's City Club, 22 Park avenue. On Friday the social meeting will be held at the Hotel Commodore, when Maud Scheerer, will give Shaw's on Friday afternoon at the Hotel Astor.

The annual birthday dinner of Drame.
Comedy will be held on February 19 at the Astor.

In honor of Annie Mathews. Registerelect of New York county, a luncheon will be given on Saturday at the Hotel.

Taverno, at the club at the Women's City Club, 22 Park avenue. On Friday the social meeting will be held at the plano.
On Wednesday, the first of the season, with Mr. Eclinton as chairman, was Courcy Rossi-Diehl will sing a group of songs with the composer, Remo house, whose tools, whose tools, whose tools, will he "A Accessing the control of the property of the control o

City Club, 22 Park avenue. On Friday the social meeting will be held at the Hotel Commodore, when Maud Scheerer dramatic Interpreter, will give Shaw's "Capt. Brassbound's Conversion" and Courcy Rosst-Diehl will sing a group of songs with the composer, Remo Taverno, at the plano.

The next club matines will be "A Bill of Divorcement," the discussion of which will be led by Mrs. S. S. Dunham.

One hundred members of the Kansas Women's Club, Mrs. David Burr Luckey president, gave a bridge last Tuesday at the Hotel Majestic to aid the $10,000 endowment fund for a Kansas dormitory in the National Navy Club at 15 East Forty-first street.

"Vassar Follies," a little skit written of the Manus of the Club, Mrs. a little skit written of Romandad Saplo.

"Vassar Follies," a little skit written of the Manus of the Club, Mrs. a little skit written of Romandad Saplo.

"Vassar Follies," a little skit written of the Manus of the Plano of the Manus of the play was given by Miss Lille and Joseph Gutman, the Manus of Romandad Saplo.

One hundred members of the Kansas worder the chairmanship of Mrs. John Was allowed the play was given by Miss Lille of Divorcement," the discussion of Wassar Manus, Nathani Loth and Joseph Gutman, the Massas Marguerite Sylva, Schilar Trolled Trol At the regular monthly meeting and luncheon of the Woman's Republican Club, Mrs. James Griswold Wentz president, on November 10 at the Hotel Plaza Mrs. Jessica McCall spoke on "The Port Question," illustrated with motion pictures, and Dr. Henry A. Atkinson spoke on "How Far Can We as a Nation Afford to Disarm?" Mrs. Stanley Lyman Otis was the chairman of the programme.

New York Theatre Club, Mrs. Belle de Rivera president, held its social day on Tuesday at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. de Rivera, who presided, after the greeting

Olivia Sterner and Miss Diana Dalziel.

Von Klenner, founder and president, on Thursday, was Andreas Dippel, general director of the Chicago Opera Company, who outlined a new plan for grand opera in the smaller cities. Mr. George Reimherr sang a number dedicated to Marshal Foch, "America to France," music by Henry Hadley. Miss Lucy Van De Mark sang "Elsa's Dream," Mr. Greenwald at the plano.

On Wednesday, the first social evening on December 13 the play "Ambush" will be discussed at the last meeting.

There was a large attendance at the president's day reception held on Monday by the Chicago Woman's Club, Mrs. Walter H. Gahagan president, at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. H. W. Phelps was chairman of the day and gave a fine musical and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh were guests of honor, were present. All of them gave short talks on the subject of the day, "Who Is My Neighbush" will be discussed at the last meeting.

There was a large attendance at the president's day reception held on Monday by the Chicago Woman's Club, Mrs. Walter H. Gahagan president, at the Hotel Astor. Mrs. Hotel Astor. Mrs. At the musical and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and gave a fine musical and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and gave a fine of the day and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and literary programme. Twenthe Hotel Astor. Mrs. John McCullagh was chairman of the day and gave a fine of the day and gave a fi

Joseph MacDonald, chairman for the Federated Clubs of New York for the Red Cross roll call. The club made a generous contribution in answer to this ing.

The club will have its dinner dance and musical on December 17 at the Hotel McAlpin. Mrs. J. W. Barnhart

The seventh annual Thanksgiving celebration of the University Forum will be held next Tuesday evening at the headquarters of the club at 203 West Ninety-third street, Dr. Alexander Cumming, the president, will give the address of the evening on "The Pilgrim Fathers and America's Making." It will be followed by a witches lucky number dance and general dancing.

Mme. Margaret Matzenauer, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera House, will sing at a concert, dance and supper arranged to the members and guests of honor, announced that the club's social programme for the season would include a card party on November 29, a Yuletide luncheon on December 20, when gifts for the children's Christmas tree will be for the children's Christmas tree will be received, and a matinee party to sea "Thank-U," which the club will attend in a body. The programme on Tuesday included musical numbers by Graham McNamee, barytone, with Miss Winifred at the piano. The speakers of the afternoon were 5. Carter Troop, Harry Davenport, Mrs. George Maynard Clyde, Mrs. J. Christopher Marks, Norma Mitchell and Miss Dagmar Perkins, Mrs. Charles K. Mills was chairman of the day.

day.

Mrs. de Rivera, who has been appointed vice-chatrman of the Woman's National Foundation, had a large tea given in her honor on November 10, by Mrs. Francis Burrall Hoffman, at the Hotel Plaza.

Established Over Half Century

C. C. SHAYNE & CO.

Manufacturers of Strictly Reliable Furs are exhibiting a large collection of

EXCLUSIVE MODELS IN THE SEASON'S

FASHIONABLE FURS COATS - - WRAPS SCARFS and MUFFS

126 West 42d Street

New York

by the New York section of the Council of Jewish Women, to be held at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday evening, December 18. Hans Kindler, cellist, will play. The entertainment is being held to raise and with which to enable the organication to continue its programme of Americanization, educational, recreational and religious activities among the Jews of this city.

Criterion Society to Have Dine ner and Dance on Friday Night.

George J. Jagle, Jr., Mrs. George E. Morrissey, Mrs. Owen J. McWilliams, Mrs. Matthew J. O'Neill, Mrs. Lincoln S. Rogers, Mrs. Edward Simon, Mrs. John T. Taylor and Mrs. Paul C. Wooster.

A course of seven lectures on current events will be given by Marion Gaylor Atwell at the Hotel Pennsylvania on November 22. December 6, and 29. January 3, and 17, February 7 and 21. They will be under the auspices of the New York City Colony of the National Society of New England Women, Mrs. John Francis Vawger, president. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. James Ward Warner, 622 West One Hundred and Thirteenth street, treasurer, or Mrs. John Douglas Walton, chairman, of Bellport, L. I.

The Athene Club, of which Mrs. Kath-

The Athene Club, of which Mrs. Katherine A. Martin is president, opened its annual season with a luncheon and meeting at the Waldorf-Astoria last Thursday. Dr. Robert Bruce Clark, chaplain of the club, acted as chairman of the day, and there were addresses by Winter Russell and Dr. Nehemiah Boynton, and songs by Lesile Atnold. A feature of the club's activities during the winter will be a series of lectures on psychological topics. Two fances will be given, a subscription dance on December 3, and the annual dinner dance on January 13. The officers of the organization this year include Mrs. George A. Brand, Mrs. Bond Stow and Mrs. Margaret E. Hamilton, vice-presidents; Mrs. Frank K. Brewster, treasurer: Mrs. Cornell Dunlap, recording secretary, and Mrs. Helena L. Rehfuss, corresponding secretary.

The Betsy Foot Chapter of the Alumnæ Association of the Albany Academy for Girls held its annual luncheon at the Hotel Astor on Tuesday. The entertainment feature, which followed the luncheon, was a group of Chaucer readings by Gordon Brinley.

The Ray Current Events Club, of which Mrs. J. W. Loeb is president, held their regular monthly meeting at the Hotel Astor on Mondoy morning. The Hotel Astor on Mondoy morning. The second parliamentary law drill was directed by Mrs. Angelique V. Orr. A discussion on birth control by Dr. Ernestine Dorchet and Mrs. Owen Kildare was another feature of the meeting, and Mrs. Henry Soble gave a resume of all current events since the last meeting of the club in the spring—which was followed by a general discussion by members.

The Fresh Air Fund for Adult and Elderly People, Mrs. Alexander J. Schwarts president, held a bridge for the Jews of this city.

Prof. George P. Baker of the Harvard Work Shop, Miss Jessie Bonstelle, Mr. Lawrence Langer and Mr. Arthur Hopkins will speak on various plans of dramatic productions at the smoker at the MacDowell Club on Sunday evening December 4. Members of the club and their friends are invited to attend.

The diamond jubilee crusade of the Christian Brothers Boys to erect and equip Manhattan College, Spuyten Duyvil Parkway, will culminate in a dance at the Waldorf-Astoria on the evening of Friday, November 25. The entire expenses have been met by a committee of Manhattan College Alumni Society, so that all the proceeds will be added to the diamond jubilee fund, which now is nearing $300,000.

A regular monthly meeting of the Harlem Council of Women will be held to-morrow afternoon at the Young Women's Christian Association, 124th street and Lenox avenua. The programme will include an address by Mrs. Ex Roy Kempshall who will take for her subject "The Lighthouse" and reports by Mrs. Louis Jewayit on "Mortion Picturas"; Miss Maryal Know on "The New York City Federation of Women's Clubs Conference." At the conclusion of the programme teawill be surved.

The first of the Mozart supper dances, Mrs. William M. Haradon, chairman will be held on December 6 in the ballroom of the Hotel Astor. The other dances will be on January 8, February 7 and March 7. The patronesses are Mrs. Noble McConnell, president of Mozart; Mrs. Frank G. Cochran, Mrs. Agnes Denner, Mrs. Samuel G. Estabrook, Mrs. Frank G. Cochran, Mrs. Agnes Denner, Mrs. Samuel G. Estabrook, Mrs. Frank H. Edwards, Mrs. Carrie Hession, Mrs. Norman Jollif, Mrs. George J. Jagle, Jr., Mrs. George E. Morrissey, Mrs. Owen J. McWilliams, Mrs. Matthew J. O'Nelli, Mrs. Lincoin S. Rogers, Mrs. Edward Simon, Mrs. Matthew J. O'Nelli, Mrs. Lincoin S. Rogers, Mrs. Edward Simon, Mrs. John T. Taylor and Mrs. Paul C. Wooster. Indeed the regular weekly luncheon of the League of Advertising Women, Miss Jane J. Martin president. These get together long-

Women Artists to Hold a Reception

The National Association of Women Painters and Sculptors, Mrs. H. Van Buren Magonigle president, will hold a reception on the evening of November 23 in the rooms of the Architectural League, 215 West Fifty-seventh street.

The speaker of the evening will be Ernest Peixotto, author, painter and illustrator. Lucien de Vannoz, the French barytone, will sing American and French songs. He will be accompanied by John H. Daley, American pianist, who also will play piano solos.

warmth that makes these pastimes a real pleasure.

Also appropriate and smart for these occasions are Natural Scal $175. Natural Muskrat $190. Hudson Seal $275. Nutria $285. Beaver $350. Leopard $350. Mole $325. Squirrel $475.

A.JAECKEL & CO.

Furriers Exclusively FIFTH AVENUE

Between 35th-36th Streets